Corporate America Supports You (CASY) is a St. Louis based national nonprofit organization focused on eliminating unemployment and underemployment with transitioning active duty, National Guard, Reserves, and veterans. Services are customized to the needs of each individual in the program and provided through one-on-one assistance from a CASY Employment Specialist.

In 2015 CASY placed over 7,045 military-affiliated job seekers into careers with an average starting income of over $60,000. CASY tracks all metrics with the BrassRing Recruit Management System donated by IBM and has been awarded the Seal of Distinction by the Call of Duty Endowment. It is recognized as one of the most efficient and effective nonprofits in the United States with 96 cents of every dollar spent on mission. To learn more about CASY visit www.casy.us.
