

Erin Voirol

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER (COO) CASY & MSCCN

Erin Voirol is the Chief Executive Officer (COO) for Corporate America Supports You (CASY) and the Military Spouse Corporate Career Network (MSCCN), two unique non-profit organizations that provide employment readiness and job placement assistance for all veterans, military spouses, National Guard and reserves, transitioning military, and caregivers of war wounded.

Erin has been an Army spouse for 19 years. Having no previous experience with military life, Erin quickly adapted to the life of a military spouse. She is an entrepreneur, military family activist, and civic leader, and holds a degree in Business Administration and Marketing.

Prior to CASY & MSCCN, Erin spent the last eighteen years working in many different Military Family and local civic programs and has ten years of experience as an Army Family Readiness Group Leader. Her careers in broadcasting, administration, and marketing have prepared her well for her current position as an advocate for military spouse and veteran employment. She serves on various military spouse program boards, is a member of the Association of the United States Army, Army Aviation Association of America, and the U.S. Army Ordnance Corps Association.

Erin has received numerous awards for her service in working with Military Families, including the "Order of Our Lady of Loreto" award, Ft. Riley's "Volunteer of the Year Award", and the U.S. Army Ordnance Corps "Keeper of the Flame" award, and was nominated as Military Spouse of the Year for Flagship News in the Hampton Roads area.

Erin has a passion for helping those who are in need, particularly those within the military community. Through her personal experiences and years of service work, she understands the struggles that spouses, families, and veterans face during their service and serves as a dedicated advocate for military family support.
